
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

CENTRAL DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

ADAM SANCHEZ,

Defendant.

MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER GRANTING EARLY
TERMINATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

Case No. 2:05CR531DAK

Defendant, Adam Sanchez, has filed a motion for early termination of supervised release. This court sentenced Defendant to 48 months incarceration and a 36 month term of supervised release. Defendant was released from prison in January 2009. Therefore, he has served nearly two years of his three year term.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1), after considering the factors set forth in Section 3553(a)(1), (a)(2)(B), (a)(2)(C), (a)(2)(D), (a)(4), (a)(5), and (a)(6), the court may terminate a term of supervised release “at any time after the expiration of one year of supervised release . . . if it is satisfied that such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant released and the interest of justice.” The factors to be considered in Section 3553(a) are those factors to be considered in imposing a sentence, including “the nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant,” the applicable sentencing guidelines and any policy statements issued by the Sentencing Commission, and the need for the sentence imposed to promote respect for the law, to provide just punishment, to deter other criminal conduct, and to provide the defendant with needed services. See 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).

The court has contacted Defendant's probation officer and learned that he is very supportive of early termination in this case. Defendant has had no problems while on supervised release and has complied with all the terms of his supervised release. Defendant has maintained steady employment and expresses a commitment to his family. Based on Defendant's conduct during his term of supervised release, the court finds that an early termination of supervised release is warranted. Accordingly, the court grants Defendant's motion for early termination of supervised release.

DATED this 13th day of December, 2010.

BY THE COURT:

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Dale A. Kimball". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style. The first name "Dale" is written in a larger, more prominent script, followed by "A." and "Kimball". The signature is positioned above a horizontal line.

DALE A. KIMBALL
United States District Judge